What Will You Experience in Today's Worship?

Our goal at Waterview is to read the New Testament and obey the divine blueprint found there for Christ's church. Here's what we do at Waterview in our worship to observe that mandate.

Singing

Most notice we sing without an instrument. God specified that we use the instrument He created--the human voice and human heart. He desires the pure expression of worship. In our desire to serve Him according to His expressed will, we sing without any instrumental accompaniment.

The Lord's Supper

Each week, we gather to keep the saving sacrifice of Jesus fresh in our minds and our lives in the Lord's Supper, following the example of the early church (Acts 20:7). The bread without yeast symbolizes Christ's physical body and grape juice mirrors His blood given for sin. In this service, we remember our freedom from sin and our anticipation of heaven.

Contributions

We give of our physical means each week as an expression of our gratitude for God's blessing but also to acknowledge our role as stewards of the wealth God has provided. With the money collected, we spread God's message and help those in need. All contributions are free-will, and no one is obligated to give.

Preaching

We connect with God's will through listening to his voice, the Bible. Our sermons come from God's Word. Through them, we learn, are strengthened, and are encouraged.

We thank you for being with us today and hope your experience of worship brings you closer to the God we serve.

The Reward of Kindness

Johnny Bobbitt, Jr. bought a $400,000 house. That's not unusual.

What is rare is he was homeless when he bought it, and he paid for it in kindness.

In 2017, Kate McClure ran out of gas in a seedy area of Philadelphia. She approached Bobbitt on the street.

He told her to get back in the car and lock the doors.

Bobbitt started walking to a gas station. He took the last $20 he had in his pocket and bought a red gas can and filled it with gas.

McClure wanted to help, but her attempts to find him were futile.

Online she wrote:

"Johnny did not ask me for a dollar, and I couldn't repay him at that moment because I didn't have any cash, but I have been stopping by his spot for the past few weeks ... I wish that I could do more for this selfless man, who went out of his way just to help me that day."

Many people read it, and someone started a GoFundMe page. It raised the money for Johnny to get a house.

The writer of Hebrews encouraged, "Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it." (Heb. 13:2)

Help someone today. Who knows what will be the reward?

Invite Someone on Easter Sunday

Each of us have friends and neighbors who are looking for a church to attend on Easter Sunday, April 1st. What a great opportunity to invite them to Waterview! Pick up one of our special Easter Sunday postcards at any of our foyer tables today and start a conversation.

Outreach Workshop: Last Week to Register

Sharing your faith always involves 3 stories: your story, the Gospel story, and the other person's story. The more you know about the other person and their point of view, the better able you are to draw connections from their story to the greater story of Jesus. What about the Hindu story? Come hear Dr. Mani Pagidipalli as he enlightens us on our Hindu neighbors and how to share the Gospel with them. Register at waterview.org/outreach-workshop or contact the church office.

The workshop is Saturday, March 24 from 9 am to 3 pm. Childcare is provided with registration.

Mani will also preach the following morning, Sunday March 25.

Money Delivered for Police Officer's Family

Recently, Waterview responded to the tragic death of Richardson police officer David Sherrard. After a few weeks of contributions, Waterview gave $9,820 to help the family of the fallen officer.

Last week, Jason Moon and Greg Parks made the delivery of the check to the Richardson Police Department in the name of the Waterview church.
