THE LOST TICKET

In 1974, a policeman in Minersville, Pennsylvania noticed a car parked illegally. So the policeman did his job. He left a $2 parking ticket under the wiper blade.

Years passed. The ticket went unpaid. The car had Ohio plates and the technology of the time did not allow for tracking of out-of-state vehicles. The police forgot about the ticket.

Recently, the Minersville Police Department received an envelope. The return address said, "Feeling guilty, Wayward Road, Anytown, CA." They opened it with curiosity.

Inside was a copy of the original ticket with $5. It was the $2 ticket plus $3 in interest. An enclosed note read:

Dear PD, I've been carrying this ticket around for 40 plus years. Always intending to pay. Forgive me if I don't give you my info. With respect, Dave.

How many people carry around old parking tickets...or past sins?

Zaccheus did. He smeared the name of Jericho with traitor, turncoat, and tax collector. He was the most hated man in town with much to carry. We will never know what Jesus said that day. But Zaccheus paid his outstanding bill with the coin of repentance.

What tickets are you carrying around in your life? Are there relationships to mend? Hurts to forgive? Amends to make? It's never too late to do right. Open up the wallet of your life and do something about those remaining tickets.

WATERVIEW SHARES

Dustin Jones spoke at the Brown Street Church of Christ in Waxahachie as part of their summer series last Wednesday evening.

SISTERS IN SERVICE

Are you looking for a way to serve God and others? Would you like to expand your circle of Christian friends at Waterview? Come to Sisters in Service Sewing every 2nd and 4th Monday at 9:30 am. Bring a sack lunch and stay till 2 pm. We will provide dessert!

Don't sew? It doesn't matter. Can't get there at 9:30 am? Just come when you can and stay as long as you can. We have a job for you and we need your help.

Join us tomorrow morning in the Sisters in Service workroom in the north wing by the kitchen.

AUGUST FOCUS ON ELDERS

This month, we will focus on elders.

This morning, Jason will begin a three-part series on Elders. Then, all adult classes will discuss elders over the next two weeks.

Next Sunday, class will cover the roles elders fulfill. On August 26, we will take those roles and put them up against the qualifications in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1. (Teachers will receive the sheets early this week.)

On August 26, you will be asked to submit names of men who you feel are qualified to be considered as an elder at Waterview.

PRAYERS

Dennis Oldham has been diagnosed with leukemia. He will take oral chemotherapy for the foreseeable future.

Lisa Place had a biopsy on her lung on July 11. She is awaiting the results.

Judy Smith has been moved to Victoria Garden in Allen for rehab. Short visits in the late afternoon are welcome.

Rebecca, the infant daughter of Justin and Michelle Stanley will have surgery on Thursday, August 16 to correct a bladder abnormality.

Mark Tolleson continues to struggle with cancer.

Virginia Thomas will have a nerve block performed tomorrow to hopefully help with her severe back pain.

Stop by the tables in the foyer and check your directory information. Please mark any changes on the sheet (neatness counts) or put a check mark by your name if everything is correct.

HELPING OTHERS

Arms of Hope is a Christian care organization that assists children and single-mother families in need. Arms of Hope's facilities include Medina Children's Home and Boles Children's Home. The organization is beginning to prepare for Christmas for the moms and kids at Arms of Hope. It is through generous sponsorships that they are able to provide a wonderful Christmas in a Christ-centered environment for so many that would not otherwise have one. If you or your LOA would be interested in sponsoring Christmas for the residents, please contact Winno Johnson for more information.

FALL RETREAT

Our fall retreat for the 2018-19 school year will be on September 1-2. This Labor Day weekend event will be on Saturday and Sunday to allow you to do your Friday school events and be back before the Monday holiday with your families, but it's just around the corner so start planning for this event. This is a great chance to learn, grow, and see your camp friends again. Sign-ups for the retreat are now available on the youth desk and are due in two weeks!

SCHEDULES

It's still early - but get your schedule of extracurricular activities to Warren as they become available so he can make plans to come out and support you.

FALL DATES

Retreat	9/1-2
Devo	9/16
Connect	10/7
Connect	11/4
Devo	11/18
Connect	12/2
Devo	12/16

PICTURES?

If you have pictures from our summer events, please share them with Warren TODAY so he can edit and share them with everyone.

SUMMER CELEBRATION

Summer Celebration is next Sunday night, August 19! Families of teens are asked to bring a finger-food type of dessert (cookies, brownies) to share with the church.

ENCOURAGEMENT NOTE

If you haven't already, grab a 3x5 card in the HS room and write a note to Trevor, Averill and/or one of our soon-to-be college freshman. Once you are done with the cards, please put them in the box at the youth desk.

Sign-up for text updates related to teen activities by texting @waterview to 81010 then follow the prompts.

COLLEGE SUNDAY Next Week

On this special Sunday, we'll recognize our local college students who are about to return to classes for the fall, give a warm welcome to families of UTD students who are in town for the start of the semester, and highlight our College & Young Professionals ministry. After morning service we'll enjoy a potluck luncheon in the North End.

If you would like to help with the luncheon, email Celia Cagle at caglece@gmail.com.

If you know of incoming college students who will be moving to the area, let Greg Parks know so we can reach out to them.

MENTORS at Jackson Elementary

Each week during the school year, numerous Waterview members serve as mentors to wonderful students at Jackson Elementary in Plano. They enjoy lunch together, help with homework, and serve as an encourager for their student.

There will be an informational meeting on August 26 at 4 pm in S101. Come learn how you can change the life of a Jackson Elementary student. RSVP to Greg Parks.

SUMMER SERIES This Week

Modern man has made God common. Speech denigrates his character and ignoring commands reduces him to an idea.

How do we regain and retain the awe of God?

This week, our speaker is Noel Whitlock, who preaches for the College Church of Christ in Searcy, AR.
